LOCAL AND GENERAL

Mrs. Eames of Wahiawa has a notice in regard to Jersey cows.

The little schooner Ka Mo, Captain Hips, arrived from Kona ports with general cargo.

Judge Whitney, the deputy attorney general of the Territory, was an incoming passenger on the Kinohiwa this morning.

On the last trip of the Claudine at Hilo that vessel tried conclusions with the wharf to the extent of about $150 damage to the landing.

H. E. Pickett's famous yacht, the Spray, was sold at auction by Jas. E.
 Morgan this noon. It was bought by J. A. Balch, trustee, through C. J.
 Hutchins, for $325.

The N. G. H. of Hilo are happy over their newly painted armory. They have been many years trying to get the job done, and now that it is finished there is great rejoicing.

Jailor Mable of the Hilo jail came in this morning bringing with him one of the prisoners who has been at work on the Volcano road. The man is a Japanese, who has been behaving queerly of late, and it is thought that he has gone insane.

The French cruiser Catina will be opened to those who desire to visit her tomorrow afternoon from 1 o'clock. Since she received a new coat of white paint, she commenced to draw a large crowd of spectators daily.
 The deck has been repainted and the guns polished up.

Last Wednesday, which was the anniversary of the death of Bernice Pau-ali Bishop, and the birthday of Prince Kaiulani, was remembered by many relatives and friends of the two departed chieftesses, who bore flowers and wreaths to their resting places in the Nuuanu mausoleum.

The September issue of the Marine Review, a leading marine journal, contains an interesting article on Honolulu, written by Secretary H. P. Wood of the Promotion Committee. It gives a number of valuable data of importance to shipmasters and yachtmen and is profusely illustrated.

$17,500. DAMAGES

 In the matter, either to return with the Fullerton or to convey libellant to Port Harford, leaving the Fullerton to finish her voyage alone.

Although the time which would have been required for the return was uncertain, I find from the evidence that the prospects of obtaining speedy medical assistance were decidedly more favorable in case of a return to Port Harford than by a continuance of the voyage to Kihel, and that the seriousness of the libellant's condition required the adoption of the most promising plan.

I find the ship liable to the libellant in damages for the injuries received by him through the negligence of its agents in furnishing for the ship's use a windlass and chain which did not fit each other, for injuries received through the negligence of the master in using such windlass and chain together for holding the said towline, and for the master's neglect of his duty to the libellant in neglecting and refusing to return to Port Harford for medical and surgical assistance. As to the amount of damages, I consider that the libellant's earning capacity may be reasonably estimated to be not over one-third of what it was before the injury. He is incapacitated from performing work as a seaman, but may still earn something on land. He

WATERFRONT NOTES

The S. S. Moana arrived off port last night and came in this morning.
 She left Vancouver on October 11. experienced moderate N.W. wind, moderate sea with cloudy weather to 13th, thence strong S.E. wind, high sea with squally weather to 16th, thence moderate to fresh N.W. winds, moderate sea and fine weather to 17th, followed by fresh N.E. wind and sea to arrival. She brings 15 tons of cargo and 4 bags of mail for this port.
 She departed for the Colonies at 2
 p. m.

The Kinohiwa arrived very early this morning from Hawaii and Maui and docked at 8 o'clock. There were many kamaianas on the wharf to greet parents and friends. Besides her heavy list of passengers she brought the following cargo for this port: 5 bags taro, 7 horses, 10 pigs, 11 bales gobo, 30 barrels wine, 32 cords wood, 39 empty barrels, 44 bags taro, 48 empty kegs, 75 bags beans, 77 bundles hides, 261 packages sundries.

The only incoming steamer from Kauai this morning was the Nihau.
 She was commanded by Captain Oness and brought as her freight 1 gasoline launch and 3 packages merchandise.
 Purser Hart reports that the steamer Maui was discharging freight at Koloa, when the Nihau departed.
